Beyond the Orange Revolution: Trade, Investment and Labour Opportunities in Ukraine

Date: Friday, September 15, 2006
Registration: 8:30 AM
Conference: 9:00 AM – 12:00 Noon
Lunch: 12:00 Noon – 1:00 PM
Location: TCU Place – Saskatoon's Arts and Convention Centre
35-22nd Street East
Saskatoon, SK

EVENT SUMMARY:

While daily political change is taking place in Ukraine, its economy continues to grow and, with it, opportunity for investment and trade. It is "business as usual" according to Ukraine's business community. STEP and the Canada Ukraine Centre are pleased to present a seminar/roundtable on the current opportunities in Ukraine. In addition to a number of Canadian experts showcasing trade, labor and investment opportunities, STEP's Program Manager from our Kyiv office will present a first-hand update on the current political and economic conditions. It is an event not to be missed.

Our panel of experts includes:

Ms. Olga Lysenska – Program Manager, FARM Program, Kyiv, Ukraine
Ms. Barb Bond – Manager – Saskatchewan Immigrant Nominee Program, Regina, Canada
Mr. Tim Marshall – Director International Development – STEP, Regina, Canada
Mr. Boris Kishchuk – Chair – Canada Ukraine Centre, Saskatoon, Canada
Mr. Guy Innes - Program Director, FARM Program, Saskatoon, Canada

Fee: $45.00 + GST Including Lunch (GST#89323 0938 RT)

The Ukraine Canadian Congress – Saskatchewan Provincial Council is a proud sponsor of this event.
