with the financial assistance of the Canada Council for the Arts through the Writers' Union of Canada is pleased to present an evening with

Marsha Skrypuch

award-winning children's author on Canadian-Ukrainian history introducing

*“The heart-wrenching
story of one girl’s experience at a Ukrainian internment camp in Quebec during World War I”*

in her new book

Anya's family emigrates from Ukraine hoping for a fresh start and a new life in Canada. Soon after they cram into a tiny apartment in Montreal, WWI is declared. Because their district was annexed by Austria—now at war with the Commonwealth—many Ukrainians in Canada are declared “enemy aliens” and sent to internment camps. Anya and her family are shipped off to the Spirit Lake Camp, in the remote wilderness of Quebec. Though conditions are brutal, at least Anya is at a camp that houses entire families together, and even in this barbed-wire world, she is able to make new friends and bring some happiness to the people around her.
