*We will spend the day
discovering, sharing and preserving our Ukrainian history*

both in Saskatchewan and Canada

“ It Started With a Plough ”

A love of the land flows through the blood of Ukrainians. It was the reason they first came to Canada and why many Ukrainians still farm today. We will discuss the first immigration wave of Ukrainians and their settlement patterns in Saskatchewan.

Department of Sociology, U of S

“ Organizations, Committees and Memberships, Oh My! ”

Here is an opportunity to explore the realities of Canada’s Ukrainian Nation Builders. The arrival of Ukrainian immigrants at the turn of the last century saw new communities being built and all that goes with them to meet the needs of Canada’s newest citizens. Whether it was the necessity of a church, school, social, cultural or labour organizations, those early leaders dedicated themselves to building our communities.
