

“ In Baba’s Trunk ”

Saskatchewan Ukrainian Historical Society

invites you to come and share the treasures found in Baba’s trunk

We will spend the day discovering, sharing and preserving our Ukrainian history

both in Saskatchewan and Canada

“ It Started With a Plough ”

A love of the land flows through the blood of Ukrainians. It was the reason they first came to Canada and why many Ukrainians still farm today. We will discuss the first immigration wave of Ukrainians and their settlement patterns in Saskatchewan.

Presenter: Dr. Alan Anderson, Professor Department of Sociology, U of S

“ Where in the World Did We Come From? ”

Was it Ukraine, Galicia, Bukovyna, Halychyna, Ruthenia or Austro-Hungary? The constantly changing borders leave us to wonder which country we actually came from. In this session we will get a brief history on the many changing borders of present-day Ukraine.

Presenter: Laura Hanowski, former librarian
for the Saskatchewan Genealogical Society

“ The Papers in Baba’s Trunk ”

Emigration records, passports, citizenship papers. Where would you find these? Are they still tucked away in the trunk or are there other places to look for these documents? We will discuss the many resources available to help us in our genealogy research.

Presenters: Laura Hanowski, former librarian
for the Saskatchewan Genealogical Society

“ Pack the Trunk, We’re Going to Ukraine ”

We are making the trip back to Ukraine to continue researching our ancestors. We will discuss how and where to do your research in Ukraine. Our presenter will share his research experience in Ukraine.

Presenter: John Pihach, Genealogist and Author
